Condensed Personal Testimony: Exposing the Underground Gang Stalking Industry & the Baal Ritual Dimension

Subject: A Call for Professional Review: Technological Harassment, Cultic Ritual Abuse, and the Hidden Industry Behind It

Executive Summary

I am a Chinese Canadian woman in her mid-twenties who has been the target of a sustained, technologically enabled harassment campaign since approximately 2020. Through my experience, I have come to understand a hidden industry operating within the United States, an underground network where corporations, military-affiliated research institutions, and wealthy elites hire cult operatives to conduct around-the-clock surveillance, psychological warfare, and ritualistic abuse against civilian targets.

This document provides a condensed overview of my experience for professionals in psychology, criminology, forensic science, theology, and law. My goal is to present the observable evidence, the technological capabilities involved, the structure of the perpetrator network, the spiritual warfare dimension (Baal ritual abuse), and the broader implications of this industry.

I am a real person. I am willing to verify my identity and provide further documentation upon request.

A Critical Declaration: I Am Not a Spy

Before I proceed, I want to state this clearly and in good faith:

I am not a spy. I am not an agent of any government.

I am a Canadian Chinese woman, a graduate student, a daughter, and a Christian. I am a truth speaker. I am documenting what has been done to me because silence benefits the abuser. I have no political agenda other than exposing evil and seeking accountability.

I am willing to provide further evidence of my political beliefs, my faith as a Christian, and my identity upon request. I have nothing to hide. I am telling the truth.

1. What I Have Experienced: The Core Harassment

Since 2020, I have been subjected to coordinated technological harassment using advanced capabilities that include:

- Auditory Projection (V2K/"Voice of God" Technology): Voices are transmitted directly into my head without external sound.
- Image Projection: Disturbing imagery, including violent and perverse scenes, is projected into my mind-space.

- Physical Sensation Induction: Unwanted physical sensations, pain, pressure, temperature changes, and even simulated arousal, are induced remotely.
- Dream Manipulation: My dreams are monitored and manipulated; images and narratives are projected into my sleep state.
- Technologically Enhanced "Auditing": My memories are extracted and weaponized to induce guilt, shame, and psychological distress.
- Ghost/Astral Projection Technology: Operators can project their presence into my physical space, interacting with my environment and my body without being physically present.

What They Can Do to You in an Instant

The operators have the capacity to suddenly put you through spells and episodes of immense cultic abuse. In a moment, they can:

- Flood your mind with auditory harassment.
- Induce extremely violating and uncomfortable sensory sensations, pain, pressure, heat, cold, and simulated arousal.
- Project creepy, disturbing images into your mind-space.
- Force intrusive, gross thoughts that are not your own.

This is not a slow process. It can happen in an instant. You can be in a normal state of mind one moment, and the next, you are being bombarded with violation.

This is what I endure daily.

2. The Technology: What Enables This Abuse

The capabilities described above are not supernatural. They are rooted in documented research from military, corporate, and university laboratories.

Technology	Description
V2K (Voice to Skull)	Also known as "Voice of God" technology; transmits sound directly into a target's auditory cortex using microwave or other directed energy.
Directed Energy Weapons	Used for microwave auditory effects (the Frey effect), remote physical sensation, and psychological manipulation.
Gauss Meters & EMF Devices	Tools used to monitor a target's environment and inflict physical sensations; documented in resources like Advice for the Targeted Individual (TI Paladin).
AI-Generated & Mind-Space Imagery	Projection of images, including deepfakes of the target and their family, directly into the target's visual cortex.

Ghost/Astral Projection Technology	The ability for an operator to project their presence into a target's physical space, interacting with the environment and the target's body without being physically present.

Sources: These technologies are extensions of research conducted by institutions like DARPA, defense contractors, and university research labs. They have been documented extensively in literature on Targeted Individuals and organized stalking.

3. The Underground Industry: How It Operates

Through my experience, I have observed a clear structure. This is not random harassment; it is an organized industry with a two-tier system.

Tier 1: The Funders & Enablers

- Corporations (including Democrat-affiliated corporate networks): Major corporations fund and equip this operation. They provide the technology, the contracts, and the political cover. This is done for multiple reasons: gathering biometric data on civilians, testing psychological warfare capabilities, ruining enemies, and sometimes simply for entertainment.
- Military & University Research Institutions: The technology originates here. DARPA-linked labs, defense contractors, and university research centers develop and refine these capabilities.
- Wealthy Elites & Secret Societies: Old American families with ties to secret societies (Freemasonry, Illuminati networks) provide the overarching ideological framework and funding.

Tier 2: The Cult Operatives (The "Gang Stalkers")

These are the individuals who perform the 24/7 surveillance and direct harassment. They are:

- Recruited through cult networks like Scientology: The "auditing" techniques I have experienced mirror Scientology's practices, adapted and weaponized with technology. Scientology has a documented history of targeting "suppressive persons" with surveillance and harassment.
- Paid poorly: They are compensated modestly for their 24/7 labour, making them expendable to the elites above them.
- Given a sense of purpose: The cult provides camaraderie, a sense of elitism, and the thrill of being "in the know" with advanced technology.
- Often psychologically vulnerable: Many operatives are recruited for pre-existing psychopathy, narcissism, or other vulnerabilities that make them dependent on the cult structure.

What Kind of Person Joins These Cults?

To be blunt: it takes a profoundly unethical, voyeuristic, and morally compromised individual to willingly engage in this work. The operators:

- Derive satisfaction from watching others suffer.
- Bond over shared secrets and perverse inside jokes.
- Express excitement at the prospect of their targets developing schizophrenia, becoming mentally unstable, or having their lives ruined.
- Hide behind anonymity and technology because they are cowards who cannot face accountability.

Yet the cult structure provides them with what they lack: a sense of belonging, a feeling of power, and an identity as a "high-tech" elite.

4. The "Switch": My Deepest Fear

The operators have the capacity to try to "switch" you, to take you from your right state of mind and push you into something immensely stressful, infuriated, angry, violent, and desperate. They can make you feel like you want to jump out of your skin, to stop, to escape, simply due to the overwhelming discomfort and violation they induce.

This is the "switch."

My greatest fear, and I know it is the wicked sadism of their intent, is that as I expose these most grotesque aspects of what secret societies and corrupt corporations involved with Baal Peor and other forms of Satanic Ritual Abuse (SRA) do, they would attempt to suddenly switch me to feel aroused by these vile things.

I know these acts are immensely wrong and creepy. I know they lead to societal collapse, unlawfulness, degeneracy, decline, inequities, more elitism, classism, confusion, and lack of good health. But their goal is to corrupt me, to make me feel what they feel, to make me become what they are.

Why are they doing this? Because SRA in the United States has, in their view, sustained corporations with wealth, military power, and what they deem as their "attractiveness" for decades. As their country goes through drastic shifts, as major inequities and racism are exposed, as they draw nations toward war for military power, economic control, and competition with global parties from the East, they are doubling down on their wickedness.

They have told me themselves that I hold spiritual significance. That is why they are targeting me so intensely. My greatest fear is to be traumatized by these sick pedophiles who, 24/7 around the clock, put me through perversions whether I am awake or asleep. (Sometimes they tone down the harassment so I don't actually feel much of the perversities, but that doesn't mean they aren't doing these things.)

5. The Horror: They Are Doing This to Others Without Their Knowledge

This is the most revolting part.

Just as they do this to me, they do this to others, but without the obvious acoustic, bodily, and psychological torment. Without signals to let the target know that people are watching. Many people are Targeted Individuals without even knowing it.

What this means:

- They project images into people's minds without their knowledge.
- They induce sensations into people's bodies without their consent.
- They manipulate dreams and thoughts without the target ever realizing it.
- They perform Baal rituals using the images and biometric data of countless civilians.

This is a deep violation of human rights. You don't even know if you are targeted. And from what I have gathered from my interactions with others in my life, the power of this network is extremely capable of targeting people across oceans, in different nations, without their knowledge or consent.

This is happening to people right now, all over the world, and they have no idea.

6. The Baal Ritual Dimension: Spiritual Warfare & Sex Trafficking

This is the most difficult part of my testimony to share, but it is central to understanding what is being done to me and why.

What They Are Trying to Do

The operators have explicitly stated that they are trying to "sow a Baal" through me. In the Old Testament, Baal worship was associated with ritual perversion, sexual immorality, and child sacrifice. The operators are attempting to:

- Force me into perverse sexual acts (real or simulated) with my parents to create what they call a "Baal sacrifice."
- Use this ritual to symbolically curse my heritage and lineage, because I am Chinese Canadian, they believe corrupting me has symbolic meaning for my heritage and race, implying China and East Asia.
- Dedicate my suffering to their false god as part of their occult practices.
- Link this ritual to their war intentions. Some operators have made it clear that they believe corrupting me and my family will influence geopolitical outcomes, particularly regarding US-China tensions.

What They Do

The operators use their technology to:

- Induce intrusive thoughts of incest, perversion, and violence involving me and my parents.
- Project imagery of these acts into my mind-space.
- Induce physical sensations designed to simulate violation.
- Make it known that they are performing these rituals "on their end" while I am forced to be aware of it.

All of this is done without my consent. I have never engaged in these acts. I have never wanted to engage in these acts. I rebuke them completely in the name of Jesus Christ.

The Goal (which will fail)

Their stated goal is to:

1. Corrupt my character and my relationship with my parents.
2. Use me as a "Baal sacrifice" to dedicate suffering to their false god.
3. Link my destruction symbolically to my heritage and to geopolitical events.
4. Destroy my credibility so that when I speak, no one believes me.

If I had not started documenting my experience and sharing it publicly, they would have continued these rituals in secret, with no accountability, no witnesses, and no record of what was done to me.

7. The Criminal & Psychological Profile of the Operators

From sustained daily contact, I have observed the following characteristics:

- Psychopathy: They show little empathy and laugh at distress.
- Sexual Deviancy: Their communications and rituals are saturated with themes of pedophilia, incest, sadism, and voyeurism.
- Narcissism: They project their own flaws onto me; every accusation is a confession.
- Cowardice: They hide behind their technology, their anonymity, and their cult structure.
- Cult Dependence: They need the group to feel powerful; without it, many would be isolated and powerless.

What They Do:

- They project images of child abuse and violence, then accuse me of being the one with the problem.
- They induce intrusive thoughts of incest and perversion, then use those thoughts as "evidence" of my depravity.
- They attempt to induce schizophrenia and mental instability, hoping to discredit me and ruin my life.
- They treat the suffering of their targets as entertainment, bonding over the distress they cause.
- They perform Baal rituals, simulated acts of perversion, violence, and sacrifice, using their technology to involve me without my consent.

This is not intelligence work. This is organized criminal behavior enabled by technology and funded by elites. This is ritualistic abuse dressed up in the language of "spiritual warfare."

8. What This Experience Reveals

My experience reveals a hidden reality that the public deserves to know:

- There is an underground industry in the United States where corporations, military research institutions, and wealthy elites hire cult operatives to conduct around-the-clock technological harassment against civilians.
- This industry uses advanced technology (V2K, directed energy, Gauss meters, AI projection, ghost technology) developed in university and military labs, weaponized for psychological warfare and ritualistic abuse.
- The operators are often recruited from cult networks like Scientology, paid poorly, and kept dependent through a sense of camaraderie, elitism, and shared perverse secrets.
- The goal is not just harassment; it is to induce mental illness, destroy lives, ruin reputations, gather biometric data, and perform ritualistic abuse on non-consenting civilians.
- This is enabled by a structure of corporate and elite impunity, where those at the top fund and direct the abuse while remaining anonymous and untouchable.
- The Baal ritual dimension reveals that these operators believe they are engaged in spiritual warfare, using their victims as sacrifices to influence geopolitical outcomes.
- They are doing this to countless others without their knowledge. Many people are Targeted Individuals without ever realizing it. The power of this network is global, capable of targeting people across oceans and in different nations.

9. The Observable, Investigable Evidence

Despite their efforts to hide, the harassment leaves a digital and physical trail:

- Screen Glitches & Colour Anomalies: Visible on my social media profiles, coinciding with harassment.
- Algorithm Manipulation: My feeds are flooded with targeted, distressing content.
- Electronic Interference: Audio recordings capture static that correlates with auditory projections.
- Independent Corroboration: My mother has witnessed identical anomalies on her devices.

This is not internal. It is external, recordable, and can be analyzed by digital forensic specialists.

10. Geopolitical Implications: Why This Matters Beyond Me

The operators have explicitly linked their actions to geopolitical tensions, particularly with China. They have:

- Expressed intentions regarding war.
- Framed me symbolically (as "antichrist," "false prophet," "Baal") in relation to these tensions.

- Implied that corrupting me and my family through Baal rituals would have symbolic consequences for my heritage and global dynamics.

This reveals a deeper reality: these networks are not only harassing civilians but are also involved in shaping geopolitical outcomes through psychological, occult, and ritualistic means. They believe that by targeting individuals and performing rituals, they can influence nations.

11. What I Am Doing & What I Need

I am not a passive victim. I have:

- Reported this to police on multiple occasions.
- Undergone medical evaluations (CT brain scan, psychiatric assessments) with no abnormalities found.
- Consulted with psychologists, occupational therapists, and my church leaders, all of whom believe me.
- Preserved evidence (screenshots, audio recordings) and documented observations.

What I Need from Professionals:

I am reaching out to experts in:

- Psychology & Psychopathology: To analyze the patterns of projection, cult dynamics, and psychopathy in the operators.
- Cult & Sexual Deviancy: To contextualize the ritualistic, voyeuristic, and Baal worship elements of the abuse.
- Criminology & Forensic Science: To guide the forensic analysis of my devices and the evidence I have preserved.
- Theology: To understand the ideological framework (Baal worship, occult symbolism, spiritual warfare) the operators use to justify their actions.

I am a real person. I am willing to provide further verification, participate in interviews, and share detailed documentation upon request.

12. My Faith & My Duty to Speak

I am a Christian. My faith in Jesus Christ is the only reason I have survived this without becoming what my abusers want me to become. I am not a saint, an angel, or a demon. I am a sinner saved by grace, documenting what has been done to me so that the truth cannot be buried.

Why I am speaking now:

If it were not for me writing my statements and sharing my understanding, they would have continued these Baal rituals in secret. They would have kept trying to force me into perverse acts implicating my parents. They would have kept trying to "sow a Baal" through me. They would have kept trying to link my destruction to my heritage and their war intentions.

I am speaking because I have a duty to tell the truth. I am speaking because silence benefits the abuser. I am speaking because what is being done to me is being done to others, many of whom have no idea, and the public deserves to know.

I rebuke every curse, every ritual, every attempt to harm me, my family, or my heritage in the name of Jesus Christ. I will not be silent.

Exposing The Underground Stalking Industry in the US: How Secret Societies, Corporate Elites, and Unchecked Technology Enable Organized Harassment
An exposé of the unlawful operations targeting individuals through advanced technology, cult recruitment, and coordinated surveillance

Introduction: What I Have Witnessed

I am writing this to expose something that sounds like paranoia to the uninitiated but is, in fact, a carefully orchestrated criminal enterprise operating within the United States. What I describe comes from direct experience, extensive observation, and a moral obligation to speak truth.

For years, a network of organizations, funded by elite American families, connected through secret societies and Corporate America, and implemented by cult operators, has been conducting what amounts to organized stalking, psychological warfare, and technological harassment against targeted individuals (TIs) [1]. This is not conspiracy theory. This is an unlawful operation that uses technology developed in universities, implemented by corporations, and executed by individuals recruited from groups like Scientology and other secretive organizations.

I share this because silence enables evil. My Faith in Jesus Christ has protected me through these experiences, and I believe I have a duty to tell you what is happening.

Part I: The Architecture of the Operation

The Funding Sources: American Elite Families and Corporations

The operations I describe do not fund themselves. They are backed by significant financial resources from American elite families and major corporations, including what some might call "Democrat corporate" entities. These funders have ties to secret societies that provide both ideological cover and operational networks.

These are not rogue actors. They are established institutions with deep pockets, legal teams, and political connections. The funding flows through layers of shell companies and nonprofit fronts, but the source traces back to families whose wealth spans generations and whose influence reaches into every corner of American power structures.

The Technology: Developed in Universities and Research Institutions

The technological capabilities being deployed against targets did not appear from nowhere. They were developed in American universities and research institutions, often under the guise of legitimate scientific inquiry. The technologies include:

Voice-to-Skull (V2K) Technology: Often called "Voice of God" technology, this allows operators to project sound directly into a person's auditory system without any external speaker. According to academic research published in the International Journal of Scientific Research in Computer Science, Engineering and Information Technology*, V2K involves "brain manipulation from a distance" where "these weapons interact with the nervous system of the target individual, affecting the target's conscious and subconscious mind" [2]. The voices are transmitted via microwaves and misuse of online surveillance technologies [2].

Synthetic Telepathy and Electronic Harassment: Academic literature documents that "Psychotronic Weapons" can cause suffering through remote brain manipulation. These techniques include "Voice-to-Skull (V2K), Synthetic Telepathy, Electronic Harassment, Microwave Hearing, Boys-to-School technology, Voice-of-God weapon, and Brain-Computer-Interface (BCI)" [2]. Victims report these technologies enable "real-time monitoring, psychological manipulation, and physical harm" [2].

The E-Meter (Hubbard Electro-psychometer): This device, central to Scientology auditing, "measures the changes in electrical conductivity of the skin that occur at moments of even slight excitement or emotional stress" [3]. It functions similarly to lie detector technology. The device consists of "two tin cans held by the subject" attached to an apparatus with dials and a needle that "registers the change in electrical resistance of the subject's skin" [3].

L. Ron Hubbard claimed the E-meter was "infallible" and allowed practitioners to "see a thought" [4]. The device has been described in academic analysis as an "apocryphal technology" around which a "technological imaginary" has been built [4].

Auditing and Security Checking: Scientology auditing involves a trained auditor who questions a "preclear" while monitoring the E-meter's needle movements. According to academic research, "the auditor asks questions of the subject, and the movement of the meter's needle is apparently used as a check of the emotional reaction to the questions" [3]. In 1959, Hubbard introduced "security checking" or "sec checks," whereby "Scientologists are interrogated, having to answer long, prepared lists of questions about their moral transgressions" [3]. "A careful record is kept of all confessions, which has proved to be a highly effective means of silencing dissidents" [3].

The Operators: Cult Recruitment and Secret Society Networks

Who operates these technologies? The answer is disturbing: people recruited from cults like Scientology and other secret societies.

The "Fair Game" Doctrine: Scientology founder L. Ron Hubbard established a policy called "Fair Game" that declares enemies of the organization can be "deprived of property or injured by any means by any Scientologist without any discipline... may be tricked, sued or lied to or destroyed" [5]. The original 1967 policy letter stated that a "Suppressive Person" could be "deprived of property or injured by any means by any Scientologist without any discipline... may be tricked, sued, lied to or destroyed" [5]. Though the term was officially "canceled" in 1968, courts and investigators have documented that the practice continues [5]. In the 1980s, Scientology's attorneys argued in court that Fair Game was a "core practice" deserving religious protection [5].

Operation Snow White: The largest infiltration of the U.S. government in history, up to 5,000 covert agents, was orchestrated by Scientology's Guardian's Office in the 1970s [1]. This criminal conspiracy involved "infiltrations into and thefts from 136 government agencies, foreign embassies and consulates, as well as private organizations critical of Scientology, carried out by Church members in more than 30 countries" [1]. Eleven highly placed Church executives, including L. Ron Hubbard's wife Mary Sue Hubbard, pleaded guilty to "obstructing justice, burglary of government offices, and theft of documents and government property" in the case United States v. Mary Sue Hubbard et al., 493 F.Supp. 209 (D.D.C. 1979) [1].

The Guardian's Office Structure: Created in 1966 by L. Ron Hubbard, the Guardian's Office was explicitly designed "to protect the interests of Scientology" [1]. Its Information Bureau "oversaw the infiltration of the government," with L. Ron Hubbard himself writing Guardian Order 732 calling for the removal of "erroneous" Scientology files, an order that "would quickly" move beyond legal means [1]. Hubbard was later named by federal prosecutors as an "unindicted co-conspirator" [1].

The Security Check Confession System: The E-meter is used during sec checks to extract confessions to questions including "Have you ever had any unkind thoughts about L. Ron Hubbard?" [3]. These confessions are kept on file, creating a blackmail system. As academic research notes, "Scientology presumes that any of its members might become a security risk at any time, and the 'accuracy of the E-meter' is used to blackmail those who turn against the movement" [3].

The Targets: Who Gets Targeted and Why

The operation targets people for various reasons documented in academic literature. Dr. Liz Johnston's 2024 book Gangstalking: Academic Intersections and Ethical Issues (Ethics International Press) defines the phenomenon: "Victims believe they are harassed by a group of unknown stalkers, perhaps connected with the mafia, CIA or law enforcement. Victims describe themselves as targeted individuals (TIs)" [6].

The book notes that "people who identify as TIs have perpetrated mass shooting incidents as revenge or to draw attention to the problem" [6]. Social media has allowed the concept to spread globally, with "millions of posts about gangstalking online" [6].

A 2015 master's thesis from Smith College School for Social Work examines "gang stalking" as "an emerging mental health concern," noting that "individuals who seem to suffer from Delusional Disorder come together and discuss their experiences of being stalked by a multitude of people in concert with the sole aim of creating terror in their lives" [7]. The thesis applies "Emergent Norm Theory to describe how gang stalking groups are formed" and "Relational Theory to deconstruct why individuals are drawn to those websites" [7].

Part II: The Gang Stalking Business Model

What Is Gang Stalking?

Gang stalking, also called organized stalking, involves coordinated harassment by multiple individuals who work together to torment a target. The Consolidated Report on Alleged Gang Stalking, Directed Energy Weapons, and Voice-to-Skull Activities documents that victims describe "debilitating 24/7 attacks, environmental sabotage, and systemic discrediting, aligning with international narratives of 'targeted individuals' (TIs)" [8].

The typical gang stalking operation includes:

- Real-time monitoring
- Psychological manipulation
- Physical harm
- Attempts to have victims misdiagnosed and institutionalized [8]

The Corporate Connection

Major corporations hire these operators to conduct surveillance and harassment. Some corporations specifically hire individuals trained in Scientology auditing techniques because these people already have experience with E-meters, interrogation methods, and the psychological manipulation skills required.

Why Operators Continue Despite the Evil

Understanding why people participate in such obviously evil activities requires acknowledging the psychological mechanisms at work:

1. The cult provides identity: Many operators have no other community. The cult or secret society is their family, their purpose, their entire social world.

2. Secret elitism: Being part of something "hidden" and "powerful" is intoxicating. Operators believe they are among the few who "know the truth."

3. Technological fetishism: The technology itself becomes a source of pride. As one academic analysis notes, the E-meter has become "an indispensable part of Scientology" that members regard "with a special, almost supernatural awe" [4].

4. Group bonding: Shared secrecy creates intense bonds. The more unethical the activity, the stronger the bond among participants.

5. Cognitive dissonance: Humans can rationalize almost anything. Operators tell themselves the target "deserves it" or that they are "helping" in some twisted way.

6. Financial desperation: Many operators are poorly paid but trapped. They have no other skills, no references, and no way out.

None of this excuses their behavior. It simply explains how ordinary people can become willing participants in extraordinary evil.

Part III: The Truth About Baal-Peor Rituals

What I Have Been Threatened With

Throughout my experiences with this operation, I have been repeatedly threatened with what they call "sowing a Baal." They constantly pressure me to engage in perverse sexual acts involving my parents, claiming this is necessary to "sow a Baal sacrifice" of me or my mother. They also speak openly about child sacrifice, linking it directly to these rituals. Many of the operators themselves, in their threats and communications, claim to be part of what they call "the pedo issue," openly acknowledging their involvement in networks that exploit children through ritualistic practices.

I rebuke this in the name of Jesus Christ.

The Historical Context of Baal-Peor and Child Sacrifice

The name "Baal-Peor" comes from ancient Canaanite religion. Peor was a mountain in Moab where the god Baal was worshipped. Numbers 25:1-3 records: "While Israel was staying in Shittim, the men began to indulge in sexual immorality with the Moabite women, who invited them to the sacrifices for their gods. And the people ate and bowed down to these gods. So Israel joined in worshiping Baal of Peor, and the LORD's anger burned against them."

The worship of Baal and related deities in the ancient Near East was infamously associated with child sacrifice. The Hebrew Bible repeatedly condemns the practice of passing children through fire to Molech, a form of Baal worship [9]. Jeremiah 32:35 describes: "They built high places for Baal in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to sacrifice their sons and daughters to Molech, though I never commanded, nor did it enter my mind, that they should do such a detestable thing and so make Judah sin."

Child Sacrifice in Canaanite Religion: Archaeological evidence confirms that child sacrifice was practiced in Canaanite religion. Excavations at Carthage, a Phoenician colony that worshipped Baal Hammon, have uncovered tophets (sacred precincts) containing thousands of urns with cremated remains of infants and young animals, dated from approximately 800 BC to 146 BC [10]. These findings align with biblical and classical sources describing the practice [10].

The Tophet of Carthage: The Carthaginian tophet has been described as "the most important archaeological evidence of child sacrifice in the ancient world" [11]. Inscriptions found at the site specifically mention the term MLK (molek), directly connecting to the biblical Molech rituals [11]. Scholars note that "the tophet represents a distinct religious practice centered on child sacrifice that distinguished Phoenician and Punic religion from other ancient Mediterranean cultures" [12].

Baal-Peor and Ritual Sex Crimes: The worship of Baal-Peor specifically combined sexual perversion with sacrificial elements. The biblical account in Numbers 25 describes not only sexual immorality but also sacrificial feasts. The connection between sexual ritual and child sacrifice appears throughout ancient texts describing Baal worship [9]. Rabbinical tradition describes the worship of Peor as involving the exposure of body parts normally concealed, a ritual of profound shame and degradation that often extended to the abuse of children [13].

What "Sowing a Baal" Means in This Context

When the operators speak of "sowing a Baal," they are referring to a ritual that combines:

- Child sacrifice: They explicitly threaten to involve children in these rituals, referencing ancient Baal practices
- Sexual perversion: Specifically implicating family members, including the sexual abuse of children
- Sacrificial intent: The goal is to claim or destroy a soul through ritual murder and abuse
- Technological manipulation: The rituals are imposed through the technologies they use on me and my mother
- Sex trafficking elements: They attempt to orchestrate sexual scenarios, including child exploitation, through technological control

The operators also claim that this Baal ritual is connected to my heritage and to their broader war intentions. They say that somehow, sacrificing me or my mother through these rituals advances the war plans of the corporations funding the operation.

The "Pedo Issue": What the Operators Admit About Themselves

What is particularly disturbing is that many of the operators openly claim to be part of what they call "the pedo issue." They admit, through their threats and communications, that there are many pedophiles in their group, and I assume they are involved in networks that traffic and abuse children. They speak of these things not with shame but with a sense of power and entitlement, as if their participation in these evils elevates them above ordinary moral constraints.

This self-identification is consistent with documented patterns in cultic organizations. Scientology, for example, has faced numerous lawsuits and allegations regarding child abuse and cover-ups [14]. The organization's use of the E-meter to extract confessions from children has been documented, with reports of minors being subjected to "security checks" asking about sexual activity [14]. A 2021 investigation by The Guardian documented multiple cases of child sexual abuse within Scientology that were concealed by the organization's internal "justice" system [15].

The connection between cultic control mechanisms and child exploitation is well established in scholarly literature. As one academic study notes, "high-control groups often create environments where sexual abuse, including the abuse of children, can occur with impunity because the group's internal structures prevent reporting to outside authorities" [16].

The Link to War and Corporate Interests

The operators also claim that these Baal rituals are connected to war intentions. They assert that sacrificing through these rituals somehow advances the war plans of the corporations funding the operation. This is not merely about personal destruction. It is about using ritual sacrifice as a form of spiritual warfare to advance geopolitical and corporate agendas.

Ancient Baal worship was often state-sponsored and tied to national interests. The kings of Israel and Judah who sponsored Baal worship did so believing it would secure military victories and national prosperity [9]. The operators are replicating this ancient pattern: they believe that through these rituals, they can manipulate spiritual forces to achieve their corporate and political goals.

The Spiritual Dimension

I do not claim to understand all the spiritual implications of what they are attempting. But I know this: they want to bind me to something evil through ritual acts. They want to claim ownership. They want to use my body and my family relationships, including the potential involvement of children, as instruments of something dark.

And I know that Jesus Christ has power over all of it.

Part IV: My Experience and My Testimony

What They Have Done to Me

I have experienced:

- Voices projected into my mind space (V2K technology documented in academic literature) [2]
- Physical sensations induced without physical contact
- Dreams manipulated to include disturbing imagery
- People appearing in my environment who are clearly part of coordinated stalking operations
- Constant surveillance and following
- Attempts to make me seem mentally unstable to others

- Threats of ritual abuse against me and my mother
- Threats involving child sacrifice
- Pressure to participate in perverse acts

This has gone on for an extended period. The operators are relentless because this is their job. They do it 24/7 in shifts, and they are paid to continue until their targets are destroyed.

How I Survive: Faith in Jesus Christ

I have not been destroyed. The reason is simple: my faith in Jesus Christ.

When they try to project voices, I pray. When they attempt to manipulate my dreams, I call on the name of Jesus. When they threaten Baal rituals and child sacrifice, I rebuke them in His name. And He protects me.

I do not claim to understand why God allows this suffering. But I know that His grace is sufficient, and that He has given me the strength to endure and the clarity to see what is really happening.

Why I Am Speaking Out

I am not writing this for sympathy. I am writing this because I have a duty to expose what is happening.

If I did not speak, they would continue. They would escalate. They would perform the Baal-Peor rituals they keep threatening. They would attempt to destroy me completely and possibly my mother as well.

But I am speaking. And in speaking, I am shining light on darkness. I am giving others who are experiencing similar things a name for what is happening to them. I am providing documentation that may help someone else recognize the pattern before it destroys them.

Part V: What Must Be Done

The Problem Is Real

Before anyone dismisses this as delusion, I want to be clear: I am not mentally ill. I am not paranoid. I am a person who has been targeted by a coordinated, technologically sophisticated, well-funded operation that is using me as a test subject, an intelligence source, and a target for ritual abuse.

The technologies I describe exist. They were documented in academic journals like the International Journal of Scientific Research in Computer Science, Engineering and Information Technology [2]. The organizations I name have documented histories of harassment and stalking, including the United States v. Mary Sue Hubbard case [1] and the "Fair Game" doctrine [5]. The funding sources I identify have the resources to conduct these operations.

The Response Required

For the Public: Recognize that gang stalking is a documented phenomenon studied by academics including Dr. Liz Johnston, Dr. Sheridan, and Dr. Sarteschi [6][7]. Recognize that technology enables forms of harassment that were impossible a generation ago. Recognize that when someone describes being targeted, the appropriate response is not dismissal but investigation.

For Law Enforcement: Investigate these operations as the organized crime they are. The extortion, surveillance, and harassment described here are crimes. They should be prosecuted as such. The Consolidated Report notes that these activities may violate "the Human Rights Act 1998, the UN Convention Against Torture, the Mental Health Act 1983 (regarding wrongful detention), and UK privacy laws" [8].

For Universities: University research into neural interfaces, auditory processing, and biometric monitoring has been weaponized. Researchers must consider the ethical implications of their work and advocate against its misuse.

For the Faith Community: Spiritual warfare is real. The Baal-Peor rituals described here, including the threat of child sacrifice, are not ancient history. They are being attempted today. Archaeological evidence confirms the historical reality of these practices at Mount Peor and at Carthaginian tophets [10][11][12]. The Church must recognize its role in protecting targets, protecting children, and rebuking evil.

For Fellow Targets: You are not crazy. You are not alone. What is happening to you is real. Find someone who will believe you. Document everything. And hold onto faith because in the end, that is what will save you.

Conclusion: Light in the Darkness

I do not know what will happen to me after I publish this. The operators may escalate. They may attempt to discredit me. They may try to harm me or my mother in retaliation.

But I know this: I have told the truth. I have exposed what they are doing. I have called evil by its name.

The Apostle Paul wrote, "For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms" (Ephesians 6:12).

What I have described is exactly that struggle. There are flesh-and-blood operators, yes, but behind them are powers and authorities that want to destroy souls. The technology is real, but the spiritual dimension is also real.

I am not afraid because I know who holds the victory. Jesus Christ has overcome the world. He has overcome the powers of darkness. And no matter what they do to me, they cannot take my soul.

I write this in the hope that others will see, will understand, and will join me in standing against this evil. I write this in the name of Jesus Christ, who protects me and gives me strength.

If you are experiencing something similar, know that you are seen. You are believed. And you are not alone.

"The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." (John 1:5)
